I.  Greetings

II. Initial Discussion of Possibilities for Fall Trips

Daniel expressed his interest in a visit to one of the biggest private medical archives in New York City, which was founded in the nineteenth century and has particular collection strengths in medical history and ethics. He also stated that the FBI is not allowing tours at this time.

Barbara discussed the interest of current members in visiting art libraries and other nontraditional institutions.

Touring the Morgan Library & Museum in New York City for a second consecutive year was debated.
